

The Clinical Advisor: How a Rural Healthcare Coalition Utilizes Two

Date: June 14, 2022

Time: 10:00PM-11:30 AM EST

Location: Virtual

Vermont Healthcare Emergency Preparedness Coalition (VHEPC) invites you to attend The Clinical Advisor: How a Rural Healthcare Coalition Utilizes Two training that was accepted at the 2021 National Healthcare Coalition Preparedness Conference.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand a framework for incorporating the Clinical Advisor position into the Coalition's leadership team: from recruitment, to hiring, and day-to-day operations.
- List examples of Clinical Advisor-led initiatives in preparedness and response.
- Identify wins and pitfalls to avoid from the perspectives of two Vermont Clinical Advisors.

Registration Details

Training Name: The Clinical Advisor: How a Rural HCC Utilizes Two

Presenters: Dr. Ryan Sexton, Dr. David Nelson, & Sarah Perry

Hosted by: Vermont Healthcare Emergency Preparedness Coalition

Platform: Virtual Zoom

Intended Audience: VHEPC Members & Partners

Register HERE

Questions? Contact the VHEPC Coordinators at vhepc@allclearmg.com